CME ACTIVITY: 17th Annual Therapeutic Apheresis Academy

DATE: October 2-4, 2025

LOCATION: UVA Pinn Hall Conference Center, Charlottesville, Virginia

The University of Virginia invites your support for the 17th Annual Therapeutic Apheresis Academy.

Course Overview:

The 17th Annual Therapeutic Apheresis Academy offers an immersive 2 ½-day multidisciplinary program designed to foster interprofessional collaboration through innovative teaching approaches. The general session will explore current practices, the latest advancements in the field of apheresis medicine, and actionable strategies for launching new apheresis services. The Hands-on workshop will provide practical clinical applications and valuable insights from experienced professionals. Attendees will also benefit from the expertise of nationally acclaimed apheresis specialists and seasoned frontline clinicians.

Target Audience:

This conference is designed for physicians, advanced practice providers, nurses, and other allied health professionals in the fields of nephrology, hematology/oncology, blood banking, intensivists, cardiology and neurology, who utilize and specialize in apheresis medicine for both adult and pediatric patients.

Exhibit Opportunity:

We would be pleased to have your organization support this conference through one of the following sponsorship opportunities.

In-Kind Usage of Equipment Request:

If you plan to bring equipment for your exhibit, we request the usage of this equipment for the half-day lab workshop on October 4. Please let me know if you will provide in-kind usage of equipment with your exhibit agreement and fee, as it impacts the number of participants we can accept to the workshop.

Educational Grant Request:

If your company is interested in contributing through an educational grant, please email me at monica.mccommon@uvahealth.org.

If you are interested in sponsoring the conference, please register on the Industry page of the course website.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let me know if you need any additional information as you consider supporting this great conference.

Best regards,
Monica
